

To Her Most
Excellent Majesty
Queen ANNE
OF
Great Britain, France and
Ireland, &c.

I Dedicate this Little Book.

*WHEN I do see the Milk-white Swan,
Of all our Fowls the Queen,
Makes me to Praise that Noble Day
That Crown'd our Illustrious Queen,
When I do see the Eagle soar,
That mounts above all Things,
How happily our People be
In cover of her Wings.*

THE Swan's Song.

1. O Why are we afraid of Man,
That's made of brittle Clay,
And does forget our Maker great,
Did Heaven and Earth Display? Isa. 51.
2. O let us learn a Publick Spirit,
For good to Israel,
And when our Bodies laid in Dust
Our Memory shall not fail. Psal. 112.
3. O let us live a Holy Life,
And still therein proceed;
Tho' our beginning be but small,
As Grain of Mustard Seed. Heb. 12.
4. O flee from Sin that is so Evil,
And causeth Judgments fall;
He to Redeem the Lord of Life
Did suffer at Golgotha. John 19.
5. O let your Light before the World
In shining so excel,
That others seeing your Holy Life
May glorifie God themsel. Phil. 2.
6. When I have been in Straits so great,
My Spirits almost sink,
Yet God most high hath given to me
A faithful loving blink. Psal. 54.
